As helmswomen you are expected to skipper the yacht during the race. Its your turn to tell him what to do on board!

A meal follows the Ladies race and this year a change to the advertised programme, as we are aware that many are away this weekend. Instead we will have an evening with Greek food, to suit, we hope, the warm weather.

PURSUIT RACE- a race with a difference, designed so that the yachts leave at a time which has been calculated from their handicap so that if they sailed to their handicaps they would arrive at the finish at exactly the same time.
